Hello! A little backstory here; the Valley Cats is a project I've been working on for the past two years and it's a series about winged cats with elemental abilities and a long list of history and cultural heritage.

Since I really want to expand the universe a little I decided to create and draw OCs that belong to you all. If you'd like me to draw a character for you, do fill out the form:

Appearance: (pelt description, fur and tail length)
Wing Type: (corresponds with the tribe chosen)
Tribe:
Element:
Accessories:
Outstanding Traits:
Pose:
Background:
Full Body/Icon

A full body picture looks like this: (just an example)

An icon picture looks like this:

I'll get to any requests as fast as I possibly can given my hectic schedule but rest assured I'll try my best to complete it on time, have a good day!

Elemental Power List:
(Elements are coded to the specific tribe)
Bold is for Tribe of The Blooming Valley
Italic is for Golden Rose Cult
Underline is for Guild Of Freedom
Normal is for Hearts Of The Restless

Pyro (fire)

Hydro (water)
Atmo (air)
Phyto (plant)
Geo (earth)
Xylo (wood)
Bio (life)
Latro (healing)
Audio (sound)
Khasko (chaos/mimicry)
Kerauno (storm)
Solar (sun)
Prism (moon)
Psammo (sand)
Scoto (dark)
Cosmo (stars/space)
Hemo (blood)
Toxo (toxic)
Cryo (ice)
Crystallo (crystal)
Tephro (ash)
Oneiro (dream)
Chrono (time)
Lethe (oblivion)
Apeiro (infinity)
Anti (default, only used for cats not of Northern descent like kittypets who joined the valley cats)

SharkChaser {}

[image]

Commission for one of my friends irl of her OC Sharkfeather (blue and white cat) and her mate Mothchaser (tom with a medallion) flying through a starry night!

Sharkfeather is a Prism hailing from the Hearts of the Restless while Mothchaser is a Xylo from the Guild Of Freedom, and both are mates deeply in love with one another. One of their favourite past-times is soaring through the star-scattered sky together.

Theme Song: Levitating - Dua Lipa

Ravenmoon {✿}

[image]

Requested by RoboRaptorwolf

Ravenmoon watching excitedly over a bubbling, possibly lethal concoction he made while his half-blind, very nervous and cautious Guild-mate Vineswinger watches him in absolute concern.

Whaledive {✿}

[image]

Requested by Foxglove436

Whaledive's taking a short rest watching the waves before flying out with the rest of the Cyclones to check on a suspicious storm brewing potently by the far Eastern borders...

Saguaro {✿}

[image]

Requested by snowboarding12

Newly made warrior Saguaro watches the bright sky as she awaits the Guild alphas to call her to receive her brand new medallion, a symbol of her new beginning in the Guild of Freedom.

SharkChaser part 2 {}

[image]

Another SharkChaser piece, this time as regular kitties enjoying one another's company in the soft dusk.

Thistle Breeze {✿}

[image]

Requested by snowboarding12

Thistle Breeze enjoys chasing butterflies around the meadow after a long day of fishing and patrolling the Eastern border; she considers it to be her favourite pastime.

Hydro Twins {□}

[image]

OC lore time? Yes.

Twin Hydros born on the night of a blood moon as the seventh and eighth kittens to their rather large family, Lake Shadow and Creek Whisper are a rather unique pair, or two of a kind.

Born with similar markings on the side of their faces that resembles a dark cat if you squint hard enough, the tribe healers found it puzzling that the twins were built similarly in every way, from height to stature to the length of their fur, even having the same vulnerable immunity system.

Oddly enough despite their contrasting personalities, with Lake Shadow being more quiet, sassy and cynical while his sister is robust, hyperactive and outspoken, they have no disharmony in their sibling relationship whatsoever and are closer than ever.

Despite being twins and being similar in almost every way, they are still easy to tell apart as Lake Shadow is the only tom in the Northern Kingdoms with a calico pelt. Their eye colours and ear shapes are factors that tell them apart, but the main deal is their facial markings.

Lake Shadow's facial patterns are on the left side of his face while Creek Whisper's are on the right; but perhaps the eeriest part of their faces would be the strange eye birthmarks on the side of the face their patterns are.

Now, whenever they sit back-to-back together, the shape of a third cat forms, its empty eyes staring blankly into space while the twins' own glinting amber and green ones stare menacingly at their target.

AmberShadow {}

[image] [image] [image] [image]

Massive art dump of these two back when Heart Of A Fighter was undergoing some major planning stage

Can you tell this was all drawn when I was just starting out in IbisPaint

Mistfoot {✿}

[image]

Requested by RoboRaptorwolf

Mistfoot angrily confronts his estranged father Shellheart for abandoning him and Ravenmoon as kittens and causing their mother to take out her anger of his abandonment on them. Poor Ravenmoon and poor Mistfoot...

Marigoldcreek {✿}

[image]

Requested by snowboarding12

Marigoldcreek enjoys a meal of freshly-caught fish while watching the ocean; a well-deserved break from the hustle and bustle of the chaotic life in the Hearts Of The Restless.

Splash Howl {✿}

[image]

Requested by Foxglove436

Splash Howl enjoys a day in the flower meadows watching the clear sky and feeling the lush grass beneath her paws.

Lion {✿}

[image]

Requested by Foxglove436

I dread to think what the Golden Rose Cult's male Flytrap did to get 'special ketchup' all over his paws.. oh well, best not to think about it I guess.

Gingerswing {✿}

[image]

Requested by Foxglove436

Gingerswing enjoys a little feathery snack down below the trees he gathers fruit from on a daily basis- wait, are those fowl eggs in his basket???

Shrimpcall {✿}

[image]

Requested by Foxglove436

One of the best Hurricanes within the ranks of the Kin, Shrimpcall enjoys spending time soaring above the Northern Waters and watching the sky; well, presumably on the lookout for a tasty morsel of seabirds nearby.

Cedar {✿}

[image]

Requested by snowboarding12

The Golden Rose Cult Scoto is on the lookout for the elusive herb Glowhail, and he appears to have found a lookalike that doesn't glow! Is it edible? Who knows, to be honest.

CoalRose {□}

[image]

Any guesses what my favourite movie is?

This is based off the Beautiful Creatures scene in Rio 2, which is a song I'm in love with because the melody is just so good. This lovely duo here are OCs belonging to my irl friend and her partner, Coal Whisper and Rose Tangle!

Tide Song {✿}

[image]

Requested by Ultima123957

Looks like this Kerauno has a lot of tiny little troublemakers on her paws...

Beautiful Creatures {□}

[image]

Recreation of a Rio 2 scene again, this time featuring a couple of two hybrids, Clusterfly (grey with white speckles) and Pika (brown with pink flower).

Clusterfly is a Solar/Hemo hybrid residing in the Hearts Of The Restless while his crush (who 100% reciprocates his feelings) is a Geo/Apeiro mix residing in the Golden Rose Cult. Both grew up together side by side and are nearing the their final ceremonies in a few more moons.

[This was a stress draw lol]

Traitor {}

[image]

Looks like the traitor Gingerseed has been caught...

Inspired by the creator DanSly, Gingerseed was a healer who had a mate in another clan, and neglected a patient to the point of death while out with his forbidden mate. Unbeknownst to him, the patient's son Dustblaze trains with the Dark Forest with his former mentor who has a soft spot for the patient, and as a result the Dark Forest spirit takes over Dustblaze's body and hunts him down to end his life.

Zentangle Dragon {}

[image]

As you can see, I love dragons... a lot.

Shade Stone {✿}

[image]

Requested by Greeniegobrrr

(Might need to squint or enlarge the photo for this one)
It appears that the intruder has made a great mistake trespassing on Cult territory, especially with a terrifying hybrid on the prowl tonight with a hunger for flesh clawing at her belly...

A/N

Hello Cosmos, this book will be on a temporary hiatus bc I'm currently working on a collab with a schoolmate and I'm aiming to finish it as fast as I can. Rest assured your requests are not forgotten, I will resume posting art pieces here soon!

Sun Whisper {✿}

[image]

Requested by Greeniegobrrr

It appears there's a mid-summer rain shower in the middle of Sun Whisper's date with the lovely Shade Stone; while Shade Stone isn't too happy about the rain, her mate finds this an opportunity to be cute.

OC Palette Showcase {□}

Just showcasing some OCs I made using random colour palettes u found on a generator online, you can use the colour palettes but not any of the OCs

Carrion Hiss {□}

[image]

Did I intentionally make the markings in her centre a broken heart? Yes I did. Introducing Carrion Heart, one of my oldest OCs who went through one of the most drastic changes in her life. Mess with her if you dare; she bites.

OC Dump {☄/□}

So it appears I may have been dead here for a while—have a casual OC dump lol
(Yes I do draw humans to the best of my abilities. All work here is original and done by me.)

Kinkwind is a causal Guild OC you will see in future books if I don't forget his existence. He's overly curious, very dizzy and has a simple charm that draws others in.

I have no other explanation for this OC aside from the fact her hair was a pain in my ass to sort out. Her name is Twister and she's a local graffiti artist who has never gotten caught by the authorities... yet.

I have no clue what to name this gremlin so if you guys have name ideas drop them down below, she was created when I was trying out my new stylus.

This one is inspired by the YouTooz plushie belonging to a YouTuber I love watching called Faline San. This is the classic Egg-Xolotl lol.

Your local supernatural tavern owner Rhonda who has dreadfully sharp teeth and a jolly attitude. Don't try to dine and dash, by the way; she's capable of breathing fire.

Sprunki {}

[image]

Yeah I'm into the sprunki fandom now lol

As long as it's not like... pink or blue...' type shit lol
Yes I'm aware the spacial proportions look a bit off and I really could not be bothered to change much
Tunner was not very pleased after Pinki and Gray were done lol

Aftermath { }

[image]

Jevin managed to reach out and hit the button that reset the sprunki world back to normal... well, as normal as it can possibly be when everyone still suffers the effects and scars of the pain and suffering that Black unleashed upon them.

That's not what matters to Jevin though; what matters is that the one sprunki that he cared the most about is finally back to life.

Tunner & Pinki {}

[image]

HC: Tunner sheds fur on his ears every so often so Pinki helps him brush the stray hairs out on the balcony of the sprunkis' shared house during the months where all four of his ears shed the most hair

OWAKCX + Brud { }

[image] [image]

Check out these two braindead little sprunks being fuckin adorable together

Also Jevin and Tunner ref bc why tf not lol

If the height looks a bit inaccurate I apologise 😓

Clukr { }

[image]

This cymbal-bearing sprunki is really enjoying some 'me time' away from the chaos from the rest of the others... until eventually he has to go and repair Fun Bot after his 'son' was caught in the crossfire of Raddy and Durple sword fighting with their horns yet again.

Early Morning Struggle { }

[image] [image]

Raddy: Fuck are you two doing at 4am in the morning?? You wanna wrestle then do it in your bedroom!

Looks like Simon and Durple got caught fighting over the TV remote early in the morning to watch a movie when most of the sprunkis are supposed to still be asleep...

Vineria and Tunner {}

[image]

Vineria paints Tunner's nails as the two sprunkis enjoy the late night peace up in the loft.

Triple Down { }

[image] [image] [image]

Three sprunki art pieces in one go lol

Brud passed out on the sofa with OWAKCX's shirt. The little braindead sprunk is tired after a full day scavenging for moss and chewing electrical cords lmao

Gray and OWAKCX watch in disgust at the types of shitty people you encounter in a fandom; the haters, the ones who make R34, the ones who make smut their entire personality, the 18+ no filter ones and the borderline disgusting/toxic ones

Also these are the sprunkis in my AU who have long tails lol, Wenda also has a long tail but I had no space to draw her in here so.. yea lol
Tunner has a scorpion tail, Clukr has both hooves and a grappling hook attached to his tail, Durple has frills, Raddy has spikes and a spike-ended tail, Gray is just Gray and Oren and Simon in this AU are half brothers that's why they share similar tails and antenna, but Oren has clawed feet and spikes on his tail while Simon has fur on the back of his own and hooves.

Yum { }

[image]

Fun fact I hc that Gray has the highest alcohol tolerance out of all the other sprunkis and can down what feels like about 60 shots of any alcohol without getting drunk or tipsy even the slightest bit at all
And Tunner is just Tunner; he has a secret sweet tooth and he especially likes soft Neapolitan flavoured cakes with sugary icing, whipped cream and crunchy sprinkles

Brud-tal Attack { }

[image]

K so the previous part got flagged by wattpad for being too gory so I made a censored version that hopefully won't get banned again and if it does then I have no clue what to do next

Braindead little sprunk boy

Dragon again lol {□}

[image]

This took like ten years of my life away smh
Anyway this cranky RainWing is called Poison-Dart

UglyDolls {}

[image]

Mythicality UglyDolls AU where some of the imperfect dolls have something a little more wrong with them than miscoloured eyes and odd colours in their hair

And Nolan here is my favourite boy with more than a few little tweaks made to him that can clearly distinguish him from any of the other regular dolls...

UglyDolls again {}

[image]

Mythicality AU again this time with Michael, no I don't care he only appeared for a couple of seconds, yes I like his character anyway and no you cannot change my mind

Teen Titans Go { }

[image] [image]

Not even gonna lie sometimes my favourite characters in cartoons aren't the main characters but the underrated side/recurring background characters. That being said, canon See-More in Teen Titans Go was a cyclops but I have a diff take on him lol

He's a little silly lol, story behind his missing eye was a chemical fire broke out and scarred him. Lost his right eye and nearly half his entire face but still doing fine now nonetheless

And this is just a scene from a rarepair fanfic storyline idea I had when I was younger; I like random rarepairs as long as there's a comprehensible backstory behind it so have Kid Flash trying to charm See-More as a means of getting info of the Hive Five

Catto art dump {□}

[image] [image] [image]

Say hello to the Eagle's one and only spawn, Olive! He does not look like his mother in terms of appearance, rather taking on the looks of his unknown father, but his eyes and teeth; the vibrant shade of glowing molten amber he hides beneath his fur and the horrifyingly sharp incisors, along with his silky voice, calm strides and lethal strength clearly show who his mother is.

This boy currently has no name and I'm still deciding which allegiance he should belong to, if you guys have any suggestions lmk! He's very shy and skittish, and he is very very suspicious of foreign concepts and cats.

And this is Wren Whisper back when she was known as Goslingkit; crazy to see how far she's come.

Valley Cats children {□}

[image] [image]

I'm very aware I haven't posed on here in ages and neither have I touched the Valley Cats so here you go 🙆

I present to you Laughingthrush and Triggerfish, a couple born in the stars. Originally in a toxic relationship with a tom named Sootblast, Triggerfish found solace in the meek, steadfast heart of a Guild hunter named Laughingthrush. It took a while for her to finally dump her former mate, but it was all worth it as Laughingthrush was everything she ever wanted and more.

Presenting a new character Inferno Blaze; a Pyro who is currently in the midst of a lucid dream where he's drowning in the deep dark and the guiding light above is his only shot of escape. Such irony, a flame bender encased in water in his own dreams.

Cecropia x Tectonic {□}

[image] [image]

My girls! These two are my current new hyperfixation and I'm very tempted to delve deeper into their story. Cecropia and Tectonic once used to be in the Guild together, until Cecropia decided joining the Kin would be a better choice for her as she loved the salty scent of the ocean and the splashing waves. So she left; but the feelings she and Tectonic nurtured towards one another as apprentices never did.

If I ever do get to writing their story, this is what it'd be called lol

Surprise; third character! Most of you probably have seen Cecropia's encounter with Delilah in my short story book; their story will be a longer, more detailed version with some minor changes now that I've had some time to brainstorm their story together. All I'm going to spoil for now is that Delilah's a lot worse than the short story portrays her as.

Picrew OC art {□}

Had a couple of my friends make picrew characters and I turned the results into illustrations, enjoy!

Viperfish is a brash and loud soul, always brutally honest and has zero filter on his mouth whatsoever. He has a good heart beneath the crass exterior; something most cryptids never get to see. As a result, he's heavily misunderstood by many though this doesn't deter his spirit.

Saw-Whet's out in the far sun-baked stretches Guild territory hunting mice. It's a miracle he hadn't been spotted yet with his fiery feathers; for what it's worth his striking abilities guarantee his prey has no escape either way.

Caladrius Whisper is a Latro who wanders the grasses of the valley on his own during a cool night, thinking about recent events that led him to realising the tribemates he once thought were close never were to begin with. When he catches sight of a shooting star, he just watches it wistfully.

Dandy's World {}

[image]

So just like Sprunki I have been dragged down into the abyss known as the Dandy's World fandom, and then I decided 'fuck it lemme make a toon'

Introducing Kitsu, a five tailed toon with a horrifying Twisted side! The ichor took nearly all her vision and her ability to speak; and gave life to her five tails which sprouted hungry mouths at their ends.

Her stats are not for those who favour quicker toons; in terms of both speed and stealth she fares quite poorly due to her tails being extra baggage. Her stamina on the other hand, is extremely high allowing for longer time to escape and her extraction speed and skill check are quite okay as well at four and three stars respectively.

Her twisted form bleeds ichor from her face and wherever she goes, her tail-mouths leave an ichor trail behind. Once stepped on, the toon will receive a Slow III debuff for 5 seconds. Twisted Kitsu has a larger attack range due to her larger size and her tail monsters rendering her slower than most other Twisteds though her attention span is not particularly impressive.

Players can detect her presence by slow lumbering footsteps and a faint glow coming from the cavity in her chest where her heart stays beating. When damage is dealt to a toon, Twisted Kitsu will hunch over and give the player a ten second 'mercy run'. A countdown from 10 will flash above her head, giving the toon ample time to escape her.

Any toon that wanders into her range of sight when the countdown is over is fair game. She doesn't think; she just attacks immediately. Shes lost nearly all her vision and her sanity; take the mercy run that she offers. It's the only piece of sanity she has left.

Her trinket is her right arm glove. It increases a toon's stealth and movement speed by 10%.

More Valley Cats {□}

[image] [image] [image] [image]

TW for blood

Sand Dollar meets a rather pretty, albeit rare pale-furred Chrono out in the fields, and finds himself rather mesmerised. The she-cat herself, Shardseeker, seems to reciprocate.

You fuck around, you find out. A confrontation escalates into a full on cat and mouse chase; and it appears the mouse has been caught. Poor Caladrius Whisper; maybe you shouldn't learned it'd be wiser to keep your maw shut. Viperfish is not merciful. At all.

Frosted Stride regales a group of apprentices on his glory days as an apprentice, telling them a particular tale where he managed to save a kit from drowning.

If any of you remember Margarine and Butterscotch from my short story book, surprise; they became mates! Who knew melodrama and sassiness could go so well together?

MORE ART {□/ }

[image] [image] [image]

A piece I dedicated to my senior and his girlfriend lol
Just two beautiful lovers flying together in the backdrop of the setting sun away from the chaos of the valley down below.

Unnamed OC flying through the clouds, enjoying the soft breeze of wind brushing against their face. They cannot see; but they can feel the beauty all around them.

Two of my newest OCs I created out of nowhere who I now have an attachment to lol
Blue haired with bull horns is named Arvis, the ginger one with a scorpion tail is called Rayven
Arvis took a risk gambling with the poker king Rayven, a desperate bid to save his life from bounty hunters who want his hide. And unfortunately, he lost. So in exchange for his freedom, Rayven binds his soul to his own; effectively sealing Arvis as his property

Training {□}

[image]

Training grounds are often not ideally used at night... but Perch's desire to want to become a great warrior pushes that fact to the back of his head. The Tephro finds himself face to face with Solencio, a Chrono whose feats in battle go beyond legendary; and the perfect candidate for a mentor. Only now, when Perch finds himself up against the Chrono, he's starting to have second thoughts asking a Golden Rose Cult cat to teach him.

Finally Free {□}

[image]

Haven't updated here in a hot minute, so...
This is a tribute to the 182 orcas who died in captivity; they're now finally free to roam where they couldn't in life
